San Francisco Event Photography Examiner rates this:

Oakland's The Heavenly States are to be held in high regards. Singer/songwriter Ted Nesselth leads the four piece through multifarious, comforting arrangements with secure authority.

He stepped away from the rest of the States and played a solo set consisting of original songs, Heavenly States songs and threw in a cover to boot. Nesselth brings an audience along with him through clever lyrics and beautiful guitar arrangements. Like many of the best word-smiths before him, Nesselth uses the advantage of experience to relay convincing expression reminiscent of James Mercer.

Off stage Nesselth is as welcoming to conversation as his songs suggest. Confident and savvy, Nesselth and The Heavenly States are one more reason to have hope for the Bay Area music scene.
